ACHIEVE AWARD

Year 7	R Fletcher	R has displayed a positive attitude to every task and all work she has done. She is always friendly and polite to all staff in Achieve and has progressed well. She throws herself into every activity and has progressed well to work as a team member.
Year 8	G Rubery	G has quietly got on with her work and shown a positive attitude towards learning. She has engaged well and we are all very proud of how she has progressed.
Year 9	B Wilson	B has tackled every day with the determination to do well and do her best. She has overcome many challenges and now takes on board advice and guidance and is producing some great work
Year 11	D Anslow	D is an absolute joy to work with. Despite many barriers to overcome, she has got on with her day-to-day studies and attended all her exams. We wish her every success in the next steps of her education and life.

ART

Year 7	B Parratt	B is a student who is on task the entire lesson. The standard of his work is exceptional; he is a creative and dedicated artist. It has been a pleasure to see his work develop over the past year. Well done, B.
Year 8	I Holmes	I constantly sets herself high standards and is always willing to work to the best of her abilities. She worked exceptionally hard on the Independent Learning Task and I have been really impressed with the progress she has made this year.
Year 9	J Lematy	J has really impressed me with her mature and dedicated approach to her studies. She is an extremely creative and talented student who has produced some fantastic work this year, both in class and at home. Well done.
Year 10	L Walker	L has a love of art which shows in everything she produces. She is a very talented artist who works exceptionally hard in class and produces the most amazing homework, which must take hours! I have been very impressed with her attitude and dedication this year.
Year 11	L Altan	L is a mature and confident student who has produced a range of beautiful and creative work. She is very independent and has a genuine interest and love of art. It has been a pleasure to teach such a wonderful student.

CURRICULUM FOR LIFE

Year 7	H Heaton	H always engages with activities in Curriculum for Life, his contributions to the class discussions add value to the lesson and he listens to other students' point of view.
Year 8	B Day	B is always willing to share opinions and personal stories to enhance every Cfl lesson. Her contributions are excellent and B is always mature.
Year 9	G Sowden	G always contributes in lesson, is articulate with his ideas and isn't afraid to share what he is thinking! G always takes on board other people's ideas and improves on them.
Year 10	J Chown	J is outstanding in Curriculum for Life. She is so knowledgeable, and is constantly improving her own understanding as well as helping her peers to learn. J is a fantastic student to have in the classroom as she is mature and polite whilst also challenging people's views and ideas.

DESIGN

Year 7	E Jepps	A fantastic all round designer! She works carefully and methodically when creating her design ideas. She has excellent practical skills and has worked really hard all year: we look forward to see her develop her skills in Design in the future. Well done, E.
Year 8	E Kite	Since the beginning of Year 7, Ewan has worked diligently on developing his skills in Design. He definitely has a flair for the subject and is a pleasure to teach. Well done, E – well deserved.

DRAMA

Year 7	A Moore	A has jumped into high school life with both feet, not only being a leading contributor and creator of Drama in lessons, but also being a part of Romeo and Juliet , Matilda and Drama Club's Poetry By Heart project. We can't wait to see what he does next.
Year 8	E Walker	E brought her particular brand of humour and sensitivity to a wide range of projects in the Drama Department this year – from hilarious improvisations in the classroom, to serious focus in combat training for Romeo and Juliet , to lending her talents to a winning team for Poetry By Heart and going out of her comfort zone for Matilda .
Year 9	J Heald	Not many people can say they have done a fire drill in full drag, but J didn't bat a fringed eyelash. It is no exaggeration to say Joey is the heart of the Drama Department, showing not only impressive skills as creator and performer in and out of the classroom, but also kindness and generosity to the casts of Romeo and Juliet and Matilda .
Year 10	K Strain	In her first year of GCSE Drama, K has shone as a creator, performer and scholar of the performing arts, bringing out the best in everyone she works with while also showing impressive understanding of drama as an art form. This year gave Kacie an opportunity to stretch her skills learning stage combat for Romeo and Juliet – something she has long shown aptitude for and interest in – and taking part in the newly formed fencing club.

Year 11	K Luxford	K has consistently shown fearless commitment to the craft of acting, never shying away from showing vulnerability as well as strength in a wide variety of performances throughout his time in the classroom – a quality which made him an ideal choice for the role of Romeo in Romeo and Juliet . His dedication to every part of the process from intensive combat training to challenging moments of intimacy showcased not just his talents but his character as he smiled and shrugged off controversies and adversity. Never one to shy away from trying something new, he has joined the cast of Matilda to learn song and dance as well. We wish him every success in the future.

ENGLISH

Year 7	A Katariya	A has thrown herself into every challenge in English and secondary school. Not only does she contribute superbly to every lesson, produces excellent written responses and fabulous homework (often involving her very cute younger brother); but she has also embraced every other opportunity offered - attending trips to the theatre and contributing to the newsletter. An outstanding start to her Crawshaw career!
Year 8	E Heathcote	E is always resilient, always engaged, always hard-working, both in class and at home; she is prepared to take on challenges even those that she finds stressful or indeed intimidating; she listens to advice and acts on it, always being willing to improve even already high standards of work. A really dedicated student.
Year 9	W Cunningham	W is a model student: hard working, determined, constantly challenging himself to do the best with every task set, reliable and thoroughly responsible. On top of that, he is unstintingly polite, calm and thoughtful. An excellent platform for huge success at GCSE next year.
Year 10	D Keay	D brings a phenomenal work ethic to every single English lesson. She is dedicated, both in class and out of class, to pushing and developing her understanding of the subject. In particular, her Literature work has provided an inspirational challenge to her peers and would rival those many years above her schooling level!
Year 11	W Leung	Despite having a mass of challenges to overcome, W has really immersed himself within our class, and school – dedicating himself to studying challenging texts independently whilst acclimatising himself to a new country. I am so proud of the resilience he has shown and his enthusiasm to succeed in English!
Year 12	E Kite	E is above all incredibly resilient, both academically and personally, but, on top of that, is always engaged and always hard-working, whether in class or at home; she is always prepared to take advice and act on it to identify areas for further improvement, even when she reviewing work that is already of a high quality. A really outstanding student.

ETHICS, PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGION

Year 7	J Johnston	J is so enthusiastic about the themes we are exploring in EPR. He always has some great and unique contributions. It is always lovely to hear what he is going to share with the group. His work ethic is outstanding, he's polite and respectful! He works incredibly hard in each and every EPR lesson.
Year 8	B Day	B is always willing to contribute in lesson time; she will also go above and beyond what is expected of her in EPR. She completes the work in lesson to a very high standard: she even completes the challenges to a very high standard. Bo will learn around the subject (in addition to homework) and is engaged and enthusiastic in her learning!

Year 9	J Staveley	J is always willing to contribute his great ideas and take on the themes that we have studied over the past year. He is both mature and critical in his thinking (making him a great philosophical thinker). His extended pieces of writing and exam questions are always thoughtfully responded to, applying the content we have looked at in great detail! Jake is polite and respectful in every single lesson. It's been a pleasure to teach him!
Year 10	K Whetstone	From the very first lesson in GCSE RE, K has tried her very hardest. She is always willing to engage in the discussions, and will try her upmost to complete the work to her very best ability. Both Mrs Cook and Mrs Lewis cannot ask K to do any more than she is already, and I really do hope K knows how incredibly well she is doing. Her book work is outstanding, and the structure of her essay-style questions is already perfected. She simply goes above and beyond what she should be doing!
Year 11	I Thomas	I is always a willing contributor in lesson time; she is one of the few students who will always put themselves forward to make a contribution, trying her hardest in lessons, and at revision and homework. Her book work is beautifully presented and very well thought out at all times. She has been to every intervention session and has put effort into those extra lessons also, and is polite and respectful at all times!
ENTERPRISE
Year 7	L Schofield	L has shown great progress throughout the year and is very hardworking. She will not only complete her work to a high level but also voluntarily support other students by sharing her computer skills and knowledge. Well done for working so hard in Enterprise!
Year 8	G Cowling	G works consistently well, and is a real asset to the group. She always approaches problems and tasks positively, and can be relied upon to lead her classmates to a successful outcome.
Year 9	J Lematy	J has worked incredibly hard all year in Enterprise, producing work of an incredibly high standard with a creative flair and original approach. She is keen to pursue Business at college, and has already begun setting up her own business. We look forward to seeing where her entrepreneurial ideas take her.
BTEC ENTERPRISE
Year 9	G Bradley	G is a quiet member of the class but his hard work and engagement in learning is consistently high. I am so pleased with how his confidence is growing through his participation in lessons and it is clear through the work he is producing. Well done G!
Year 10	A Sutherland	A has been working independently and has approached her Enterprise work with maturity and dedication. I am very proud of her work ethic and resilience. Well done A!
Year 11	A Wallbank	Well done, A: you have improved your Enterprise knowledge from year 9 through to the end of year 11. Your engagement in learning and your striving to improve your coursework is clearly evident. Good luck!
Year 13	C Tse	C is quietly determined and always focused towards the best outcomes. She acts upon feedback accurately and the standard of her written work is very high. She is a pleasure to teach. The very best of luck, C – well done!

FRENCH

Year 7	I Shaw	For regularly giving brilliant answers in class and spending time at home improving her French skills.
Year 8	T Al Fadhili	T is simply a joy to teach: she adores learning French and gives every lesson her absolute all. The progress she is making is outstanding and she strives to achieve the highest possible outcome in every assessment. She is both supportive of others in the class and always willing to help out or explain a grammar point to a peer. I'm so proud of you, T!!!
Year 9	N Shepherd	N is a talented linguist who has excelled in French since year 7. She pushes herself to achieve the highest level in all her work and regularly, through independent learning, pushes herself even further. She has an outstanding work ethic and is engaged in her learning at all times. You will rock GCSE French, N - Go get a 9!
Year 10	D Keay	For an excellent contribution in class and starting every lesson by initiating a conversation in French with me!
Year 11	M Rose	M is a joy to teach: she is focused on achieving her best and works incredibly hard to achieve this. She has pestered me for past papers, has come to additional intervention sessions and even attended a session from Cyprus in the Easter Holiday! She performed exceptionally in her speaking exam thanks to her sheer determination and hard work. Practice makes perfect, M: I'm sure your result will be a reflection of the effort you have put in! We're very proud of you.

GCSE 3D DESIGN

Year 9	H Sowden	H always strives to do her best and completes her work consistently to a good standard. She sometimes also helps others with their work and is always pleasant and polite. Well done, H.
Year 10	J Tyndall	J has consistently proved that he is an adept designer. He has continually produced good standards of work and is focused on achieving his best in GCSE 3D Design. Some outstanding work has been produced so far and I look forward to seeing him develop further in Design. Well done, J.
Year 11	S Harrison	Throughout his GCSE 3D Design course, S has worked really hard to develop his design and making skills. He has taken on board advice without question and his skills have dramatically improved over the two years. He has never missed a deadline and goes above and beyond to complete his work in detail. He has been a pleasure to teach over the last few years and I wish him the best of luck in his future endeavours. Well done, S.

GCSE BUSINESS

Year 9	G Yates	Since joining Crawshaw, G has settled in very well and consistently works to high standard in lessons. I am really impressed with her attitude and work ethic. Well done, G!
Year 10	L Wallbank	Well done, L – you have been brilliant throughout the year and a joy to teach. Your positive attitude and hard work is infectious in the classroom. Congratulations!

Year 11	I Coxey	I, you have been thoroughly brilliant and fantastic throughout both Year 10 and Year 11. You have gone from strength to strength throughout the course and your consistent hard work has not gone unnoticed. I am sure you will reap the rewards from your dedication. It has been a pleasure to teach you. Well done and good luck!

GCSE GRAPHIC DESIGN

Year 9	W Willmoth	W has taken his GCSE Graphic Design study very seriously and has produced some outstanding work so far. He listens to instructions very carefully and works extremely hard to improve his work at all times. He is to be congratulated for his effort and achievements. Well done, W.
Year 10	G Lea	G has produced some really great graphic pieces for his Album Cover NEA project. He has a natural talent in this subject and he should be pleased with his progress so far. Well done, George.
Year 11	L Threadgould	L has worked consistently hard throughout the course, having demonstrated skill in using digital software. He is to be congratulated on his efforts. Well done, L.

GCSE TEXTILES DESIGN

Year 9	G Davies	G has produced some excellent work for her Textiles Natural Form Project. She works really hard but does not rush her work, a skill which is needed to produce outstanding textile pieces. Well done, G.

GEOGRAPHY

Year 7	A Katariya	In Mrs Lewis' geography class, A works incredibly hard at all times. She contributes well to class discussions and asks excellent questions. She completes all her work and has an excellent attitude to learning! She is also a lovely student who is willing to help others in the class.
Year 8	B Levitt	B is in Mrs Lewis' geography class and I've been told she is an incredibly hard-working student. She is keen to contribute to class discussion, demonstrating sound understanding of the geography being taught. She articulates herself like a true geographer and works consistently hard to complete her work to the best of her ability, in addition to acting on feedback and completing all homework on time.
Year 9	S Dickinson	S is an outstanding geography student. He is very knowledgeable about the world and makes excellent contributions to class discussions. All of his class work is of high quality and responds well to feedback. We are delighted that Stanley will continue his Geography education into GCSE. Well done.
Year 10	B Sima	B is an outstanding geographer. The quality of his written work is exceptional and he has truly mastered exam technique so early on in Year 10. He responds well to feedback and always wants to improve, seeks to extend his geographical understanding by asking questions and regularly contributes to class discussion. I hope he continues his hard work into Y11 - we are very proud of his effort.

Year 11	H Fowler	H is an outstanding geographer. Her geographical knowledge and understanding is unrivalled in the class and she regularly achieves top assessment grades. She regularly contributes to class discussion and ensures all her work is completed to a high standard. We are delighted to learn that Hollie intends to continue her Geography education at A-level, where we are confident she will remain successful. All the best for the future.
Year 12	J Roundhill-Sims	J is one of the most hard-working and conscientious student in Year 12 Geography. We were so pleased that J continued with her Geography education from GCSE, where she has deepened and enriched her geographical knowledge and skills, despite the challenging nature of the course. J goes above and beyond with her independent learning to ensure that she will be successful at A-level.
Year 13	J Dennis	J has been an absolute pleasure to teach during his time at Crawshaw. Over the last couple of years, he has truly demonstrated excellent knowledge and understanding of all geographical topics during Y12 and Y13 - often impressing Mr Ghosal and me with his critical thinking and analysis of some challenging topics. We wish Josh all the very best for the future.

HOSPITALITY AND CATERING

Year 9	R Evans	For always working cooperatively with his peers, supporting others and using every piece of practical work as a learning opportunity, even if it doesn't turn out right.
Year 10	E Downing	Not only does E create great dishes in school, she practises at home and managed to keep on top of her work during isolation periods.
Year 11	G Roberts	For high levels of achievement throughout the course in both written and practical work. An outstanding Yorkshire pudding maker.

FOOD AND NUTRITION

Year 7	E Shepherd	For being well prepared, well organised, with good awareness of her next steps and self-discipline.
Year 8	A Hart	For outstanding practical work and always being open to adapting her work to suit her needs and increase her skill level.

HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE

Year 10	D Keay	With an outstanding work ethic in every aspect of the course and relating her vocational studies to real life, D is an exemplary student, frequently going over and above to secure knowledge.
Year 11	O Wilson	For an outstanding work ethic, the highest exam result in the cohort and for keeping class discussions going.
Year 12	K Hewson	For exemplary research skills and synthesizing information to produce course work of the highest standard, relating all aspects of her work to real life examples and applying her knowledge. Mrs Rose has to be at the top of her game to keep up with her.

Year 13	C Freeman	For making huge progress in her studies, despite obstacles and gaining all five university offers to pursue counselling. C has become an expert in the Covid vaccine throughout the last year and her party trick is to quote statistics on infection rates. She has been an outstanding student and a Crawshaw success story.
HISTORY
Year 7	A Horner	A has consistently worked incredibly hard. She is always willing to contribute, she asks questions to deepen her own understanding and always challenges herself to achieve her full potential. She has also been extremely supportive of other students, often helping them by explaining concepts and encouraging them. A always goes above and beyond in everything she does.
Year 8	T Jackson	T is a natural historian and an extremely hard worker. She dedicates herself to her work and always ensures everything is completed to the highest standard. She shows a deep interest in the subject matter and often spends times researching subjects further in her own time. Her written work is of an extremely high quality and in written answers and class discussions she makes insightful and complex links with other topics we have studied as well as comparisons to modern wider world issues.
Year 9	J Thirling	J has worked hard in History since the beginning of Year 7 and since the start of Year 9 he has flourished. He is always eager to contribute to class discussions and to deepen his understanding by asking insightful questions. He is resilient in his work and always tries his very best. J is also always extremely polite and keen to help out in the classroom.
Year 10	L Elliott	L's work ethic in History is second to none. She often completes additional exam questions in her own time to ensure she is confident in both the content and exam technique. She responds thoroughly to feedback, always ensuring she utilises any support and advice given and she has shown a real desire to perform to the highest standard. She is patient, helpful and always willing to contribute in lessons.
Year 11	L Ellis-Carter	L has shown exceptional progress and achievement at GCSE History. She has a fantastic work ethic and is extremely dedicated to her work, always going above and beyond and ensuring that she is completing thorough independent revision. L has highly insightful interactions with both teachers and peers during History lessons and completes everything she does to the highest standard.
Year 12	E Kite	E has flourished at A Level History. She has shown an incredible dedication to her studies, an impressive work ethic and a wonderful, mature attitude at all times. E completes all work to the highest standard and quietly completes additional work, always seeking to challenge herself and be the best she can be. E's A Level essays are outstanding and show that her understanding of both the content and the complex historical skills are extremely developed. Each time E is given feedback or advice, she always ensures this is applied in each piece of work thereafter.
Year 13	A Garside	A has worked consistently hard at A-Level History. She is polite, dedicated and ensures all work is completed to a high standard, always ensuring she thoroughly understands difficult concepts and actively seeks support from staff when required. She is always willing to work in a team and contributes well to lessons, always listens to advice on exam technique and essay writing skills and makes sure to apply this in both her coursework and exams.

ICT

Year 9	J Staveley	J always arrives to ICT with a smile on his face, engages with class discussions with a real interest and continuously focuses on improving his work and asking for feedback. Well done.
Year 10	I Cox	I is a determined, engaged and focused ICT student, always willing to help others and producing high quality practical work. Well done, I
Year 11	H Kosar Razzaque	H is dedicated and focused in ICT and always has a flawless attitude to her studies: she is quietly confident and it has been a pleasure to teach her over these 2 years. I wish you the best – well done, H!

MATHEMATICS

Year 7	A Hardwick	A contributes to every Mathematics lesson, where her contributions showcase a clear depth of Mathematical fluency and understanding. She is proactive in ensuring that she takes responsibility for her own learning, completing homework to a high standard, as well as completing MemRI tasks on Hegarty. Finally, A pushes the students around her to challenge themselves and aids them on areas where they have difficulties. She is a pleasure to teach.
Year 8	E Millward	E is a hard-working, dedicated, confident member of the class. He shows great self-discipline when completing tasks, employing a growth mindset when needed, showing a depth of understanding in maths by asking well thought out questions, offering alternative solutions to problems, and continually challenging himself to improve. E's excellent attitude to learning is reflected by the exemplary work that he completes in lesson; his ability to work effectively both independently and in a group shows that he is a team player, often motivating others in the subject simultaneously. In summary, E is a pleasure to teach! Well done and keep up the good work.
Year 9	N Shepherd	N works hard every lesson, constantly challenging her own understanding and learning. She contributes to every lesson and offers alternative ways of working, showing her fluency between multiple skills in Mathematics. She ensures that she never misses any lessons (catching up if necessary) and supports students around her in the classroom if they are struggling. She is a joy to teach and comes to every lesson with a smile and a positive attitude. A perfect student!
Year 10	I Grayson	I exemplifies the fantastic standards of independent learning needed to excel in mathematics. She is always striving for success in and out of the classroom. Whether it is contributing to the lesson or assisting others, Isobel is always a willing and well-motivated student. Well done!
Year 11	T Guy	With outstanding dedication, hard work and consistently applying herself, both in and out of the classroom, T has gone above and beyond in her GCSE whilst also completing a Further Maths GCSE additional qualification. T has also been involved in many extra-curricular events that have been available to students, coming in the top 10% of the country.
Year 12	P Leung	P has had a great attitude towards her learning and has been working incredibly hard since joining Crawshaw Academy. She quickly passed her GCSE maths and has since been working towards her qualification in Mathematical Studies. P demonstrates all the values of a successful Crawshaw student and is a deserving recipient of this award. Congratulations and well done.

MEDIA STUDIES

Year 9	E Benson	Throughout Year Nine, E has shown a keen interest in Media Studies, volunteering answers in class discussions and engaging fully in small group tasks. Her written work is excellent in its quality: it is detailed, perceptive and includes really good reference to the key Media theorists. E has made an excellent start to her study of the Media - well done, E!
Year 10	D Keay	D excels at Media Studies. Her written pieces are highly sophisticated, including really interesting, perceptive ideas and a wealth of media terminology. She is able to balance her focus on the finer details of a media text with her broader knowledge of audiences and industries. A superb effort this year - well done, D!
Year 11	G Hall	G has gained consistently high Engagement in Learning scores throughout the three years that she has studied the subject. Her written work is superb in its quality - detailed, interesting and accurate in its content. G's NEA is well designed, imaginative and fulfils the needs of her audience. G has worked exceptionally hard throughout the course and fully deserves this award. Well done, G!

MUSIC

Year 7	A Horner	A brings sunshine and happiness to every lesson! She's so conscientious and works very hard. A super contributor in lessons and as part of choir and Matilda , she has demonstrated 100% commitment and is an absolute pleasure to teach. Well done, A.
Year 8	M Page-Burrows	M is a delight to work with, both in lesson, as part of choir and having a title role in Matilda . Her desire to challenge herself in all areas means she achieves superb results and is a strong role model for others. She is a special performer with very exciting potential. Well done, M.
Year 9	L Hart	L has really grown in confidence this year. His singing voice has developed massively as have his skills in performing and composing. As part of the GCSE applied group, he is a role model to all. He brings a quiet confidence and calmness to lessons and is a valued member of choir and the Matilda cast. Well done, L.
Year 10	L Rugg	As an outstanding member of the GCSE music class, L brings a wealth of musical experience and a positive attitude to lessons. She has the ability to reassure and encourage those around her. She is equally at home singing in choir, playing trumpet in an orchestra, shredding bass in Rock Club or transforming into the Trunchbull for Matilda ! L is a role model and ambassador for the department – well done.
Year 11	T Guy	T has demonstrated simply outstanding effort and attitude over her five years at Crawshaw. She has consistently achieved outstanding results in both ABRSM singing exams and all performance, composing and written work. She is a joy to have in the classroom. As a committed member of choir since Year 7, as well being involved in productions and chamber orchestra she will be greatly missed and we wish her well in her future musical adventures!

Year 12	D Ribiero	Since being part of the winning X Factor group way back in Year 7, D has continued to be a consistent and reliable member of all vocal activities. Her voice has grown throughout the years and she has become a wonderful performer. As well as gaining an excellent result in her Level 3 music course this year, she is kind and caring and will always guide and nurture younger students. Well done, D!
Year 13	A Garside and A Wilkinson	These two have worked side by side since the beginning of Year 12 and have produced some outstanding duet performances. Neither started out particularly confidently but through sheer determination and hard work have grown into mature young performers who delivered a wonderful live gig as part of their final Year 13 Level 3 performances. They will both be missed, and we wish them well in their university courses. Well done, girls.
PE AND SPORTS SCIENCE
Year 7	C O'Reagan	C has excelled in his first year at Crawshaw in PE and sport. His attitude and behaviour has been exemplary in lessons and he has shown a real desire and commitment to participate in a range of sports through extra-curricular clubs and representing the school. We are really proud of you and the way you have overcome great adversity and still have a smile on your face. A true inspiration.
Year 8	E Azizova	Not only does this student attend all lessons with a smile on her face, but she contributes hugely to team success in both PE and in extra-curricular, representing the school in Netball, Athletics, Rounders, Football and Dance. To quote her: "I wish there were more hours in the day and more days in the week so I could do everything". Not only a huge asset to Crawshaw but also an excellent role model to her peers.
Year 9	L Moseley	L's attitude towards leading a healthy active lifestyle is inspiring to others and something we are proud of here at Crawshaw. His desire to always do his best in PE and Sports Science lessons is matched by his commitment to participation and excel across a range of different sports and physical activities in and out of school with great success. A deserved winner.
Year 10	J Tyndall	J has been a breath of fresh air throughout the sports science cycle. His attitude and determination to succeed is ever-present, which has recently been rewarded due to an excellent result in his sports injuries exam. Jake has taken the time to make a conscientious effort to strive for excellence when revising, learning in lessons and during the completion of coursework. I hope this award provides you with a feeling of achievement which you should be immensely proud of, because I know your family are, and most certainly we staff at Crawshaw are too. Congratulations, J – keep going.
Year 11	B Wetherall	B has been outstanding throughout the whole 3 years of the course. She is diligent and hardworking and always gives of her best. Throughout both periods of lock down she was fully engaged with online learning and has maintained high standards in every lesson. She is always looking to improve and excel.
Year 12	A Pattison	We have watched A grow in her knowledge and understanding of all things sports science, and it has given us great pleasure to see her benefit from high results and achievements. She is keen to learn and work hard to revise further expressing her passion for our subject.

PERFORMANCE SPECIAL AWARD

Year 11	E Kite	From the moment her feet crossed the threshold of Crawshaw, E has involved herself in every aspect of the Performing Arts in every way she possibly can: Hermia in Midsummer Night's Dream , Audrey in Little Shop of Horrors , Antigone in Children of Thebes , Juliet in Romeo and Juliet , Miss Honey in Matilda —and those are just her leading roles. But for E, every role, no matter how small, receives her complete dedication. She is just as content to lend her voice to choir, her rhythm to dance, her talents, aspiration and professionalism to everything she touches. Whether it's making us laugh, bringing us to tears or terrifying us at the pointy end of a dagger, this young lady does it all. E is not just part of the Performing Arts Department, she is its ambassador representing excellence in music, drama and dance, showing leadership and strength of character. She will be sorely missed, but we have all been proud and honoured to have been a part of her journey.

PERFORMANCE SPECIAL AWARD – RESILIENCE

Year 11	E Hart	Few students at Crawshaw represent Resilience the way E does. He competed in X Factor in Year 7 and 8 and as a Year Eight he landed a leading role in Little Shop of Horrors . Classmates teased him about it, but, with supreme courage, he shut out the negative opinions of others, shouldered the responsibility, and gave an outstanding performance. Like it did for nearly all of us, the pressures and isolation of Lockdown delivered a hard punch to E's confidence – to the point where he wasn't sure he ever wanted to perform again. One step at a time, E rebuilt his faith in himself, lending his impressive vocal talents to Romeo and Juliet and his comedy chops to Matilda . We couldn't be prouder of the come back he has made.

Year 10	D Keay	D is a really hard working and creative student who tries her best in all her photography work, in class and at home. I have been really impressed with her ability to remain focused and driven throughout every project. Well done.
Year 11	F Ramsey	F is an adventurous and confident photographer who has shown great creativity and skill in her photography and editing skills. She goes an extra mile with every photoshoot she completes resulting in stunning work. It's been a pleasure to see her develop at such a pace.

POST 16 - BUSINESS

Year 12	J Gill	J is extremely hard working. His written work is outstanding and he always tries his best. A great start to Yr12, J – well done and keep working hard.
Year 13	M Holgate	M is a fabulous and hard-working student. She always tries her best and puts so much effort into everything she does. Well done for being so committed. Great work, M, and good luck!

SCIENCE

Year 7	A Horner	A is a very conscientious student with a fantastic work ethic and a determination to constantly improve her understanding. Her engagement in lessons is fantastic and she is proactive about asking questions to improve her knowledge and understanding of new ideas. Alice makes regular contributions to any discussions we have in science, is incredibly polite, supports other students and is a pleasure to teach. She has made a fantastic start to Y7 science and it has been rewarding to see her confidence grow from September through to today.
Year 8	H Blain	H has been a great role model to her peers for her attitude to learning, engagement in the subject and work ethic throughout the year. It is clear H has a high commitment and work rate to get the most from each lesson. She shows a natural curiosity to scientific thinking and will frequently contribute to discussions to ask or answer questions. She is polite, conscientious and a pleasure to teach.
Year 9	A Ali	A is a very conscientious and proactive pupil. She puts 110% into all her work and is driven in her mission to understand every detail. A has grown in confidence throughout the year and has successfully implemented various revision techniques, bringing all her resources into class to make use of any extra minute she can to revise. A is always challenging herself and asks lots of questions to push herself forwards. She is a pleasure to teach and her enthusiasm for science encourages other pupils.
Year 10	E Downing	E's attitude and engagement in learning has been excellent all year. She has demonstrated a maturity and independence in her learning in and out of lessons. Evie is polite, conscientious and contributes regularly in lessons. Evie is making excellent progress and has been a pleasure to teach this year
Year 11	T Smith	T has worked incredibly hard all year and is making fantastic progress. He has shown a maturity and independence to his learning in and out of class. He is very polite, conscientious and is a regular contributor to class discussions. He is a good role model for others and demonstrates many of the characteristics we would look for in a successful and well-rounded student.

BIOLOGY

Year 10	L Walker	L works exceptionally hard in lessons and is relentless in her determination if she doesn't quite get something. She is fully engaged in every lesson and demonstrates a love of the subject. She has a mature and sensible attitude towards her learning. Polite, respectful and appreciative of any support she receives, she is an absolute pleasure to teach!
Year 11	V Ivanova	V has demonstrated across the course that working hard and reflecting on learning are the key ingredients to improve progress. She has gone from strength to strength in the subject, listening carefully to advice and applying it to her work. V is highly enthusiastic about biology and it has been a pleasure to watch her flourish: she has been a delight to teach!

Year 13	J Asquith	J's engagement, effort and interest in biology are excellent. He clearly has an interest and passion in understanding exactly how biological processes work and is determined to understand them on a deep level – he questions everything we cover in lessons in order to develop his understanding further and to fit new ideas into his already fantastic subject knowledge. J has worked consistently hard (inside and outside the classroom) throughout Y12 and Y13 and it has been a real pleasure to see him develop his confidence and understanding. As a result of his subject knowledge, his constant quest to understand scientific ideas more deeply and his willingness to work hard, I have no doubt that J will be a success in whatever he chooses to do next. I hope his passion for science continues into his future career and beyond.

CHEMISTRY

Year 10	B Sima	B has demonstrated an excellent grasp of chemistry to date. I have been very impressed with his level of knowledge and application. He is naturally inquisitive and regularly asks thoughtful questions to stretch his understanding beyond GCSE level. B works hard both in and out of lessons and always displays a positive attitude, approaching tasks with enthusiasm, is a resilient learner and enjoys the challenge of learning difficult content. This attitude is essential for an academically challenging subject: I am confident that B will succeed and achieve to his potential next year. Well done, B, and remember to keep your ion the prize! (B loves Chemistry puns!)
Year 11	T Guy	T's enthusiasm and genuine interest in Chemistry is evident in every lesson and task that is set. She has worked extremely hard, taking every opportunity to push herself forwards. Her ability to self-regulate her learning is exemplary and well beyond her years. T is determined to get every mark possible and spends large amounts of time reflecting on her next steps and ensuring that she understands everything. She is a role-model pupil and it has been a privilege to teach her.

PHYSICS

Year 10	I Grayson	I's engagement in learning has been consistently good throughout the academic year. She is a conscientious, hardworking young lady who demonstrates a genuine enthusiasm for physics, asking questions to deepen her understanding. She consistently completes her lesson work and homework to a very high standard. I embodies the Crawshaw Character standards and is a pleasure to teach.
Year 11	S Bazbouz	S is an exemplary Physics student who has demonstrated a consistently conscientious approach to his studies since he joined us in Y7. His maturity, commitment to relentless self-improvement and progress within the subject, alongside a willingness to help others with their own learning, makes him a worthy recipient of this award.

Year 13	J Asquith	J has consistently demonstrated an interest and enthusiasm in A-Level Physics as he asks challenging but sometimes simple questions about abstract physical concepts. He is not content to accept taught explanations as he continually questions and reassesses his thinking to develop a deeper understanding and appreciation of concepts taught at A-Level Physics. He has worked hard throughout the past two years and his contributions are welcomed and valued as it shows the progress in his scientific reasoning. Well done and make sure you continue your love of science and to always question the world around us.

COMMUNICATIONS AWARD

Year 7	J Lawson	J has been an exceptional student in our reciprocal reading group. His attitude to learning has been impressive throughout his time with Mrs Graham. He has improved his reading habits at home, has made excellent progress and has 'graduated' from the reciprocal reading program as a result.
Year 8	L Bentley E Walker M Page-Burrows T Al Fadhili	For reaching the Poetry By Heart national finals at Shakespeare's Globe theatre, out of around 1500 entries. A fantastic outcome – well done!

HEAD OF HOUSE AWARDS

HOUSE OF AIR

Year 7	C Kisby	C has really made an impression in our House Council... In fact, they won't start a meeting without him! He has also presented assemblies to all houses and supported our house charity day meeting our local MP - I think he felt quite threatened by this rising star!
Year 8	N Gray	This student is a fabulous role model for younger students. He won't realise it but he has contributed hugely to our house by getting involved in extra curricular and giving things a go.
Year 9	N Shepherd	N volunteered to deliver our charity assemblies and also came along on the day. N is a proud Crawshaw student and I feel proud to have her in Air house
Year 10	M Staveley	M has made an absolutely superb Vice-House Captain. I have enjoyed watching M grow in her confidence, as shas kept on top of the display board, organised charity days, ran meetings and delivered assemblies... Nothing is too big a job! M is admired by her peers and a wonderful role model for our younger students.
Year 11	L Brown	L has been a fabulous cheerleader and House Captain. L has taken on every role and job given to her, showing guests around the school, supporting staff, delivering assemblies, running meetings and standing proudly at the top of our house. Good luck in your future!

HOUSE OF EARTH

Year 7	D-B Dixon	D has fully immersed herself in the house system from minute one. She proudly enters all competitions available to her, actively seeks to get postcards to get Gold and Silver character badges.
Year 8	J McGrath	J is excellent in House Council. She comes up with many ideas for how we can improve the school and gives excellent feedback during these meetings. She is confident to express her ideas professionally to the rest of the council!
Year 9	W Willmoth	W is another vital part of the House Council. He comes up with ideas from a different angle to his peers, which means that students respect his opinion. He confidently takes an active part in house assemblies.
Year 10	A Gregory	A is an excellent example of what we hope a Crawshaw student should be. She goes above and beyond to help at every opportunity in school. Without Ava's help alongside the other members of the Earth student leadership team, we wouldn't have been able to run our school charity days for the local foodbank and Children in Need.
Year 11	G Wadsworth

HOUSE OF FIRE

Year 7	E Jepps	E has made an excellent start to her time at Crawshaw, showing not only fantastic engagement in lessons but also showing excellent Crawshaw character achieving the gold badge. I hope she keeps up her extremely high standards and enthusiasm into future years. This person has a very bright future ahead of them!
Year 8	D Tomlinson	D is a well-rounded respectful and willing student who is happy to throw himself literally into anything. A role-model to his peers and a well-rounded excellent student. Fire House are extremely lucky to have this talented young man.
Year 9	H Virdi	H is someone Fire House are extremely lucky to have such a well-rounded student, both academically and through her involvement extra-curricular activities. She is a role-model to her peers and a well-rounded individual. She is Fire House through and through. I look forward to her being involved in the student leadership team in the next few years in whatever capacity.
Year 10	A Morris	What an excellent house captain A has been – willing to step outside her comfort zone and with the drive to take on any opportunity given to her and a well-rounded student who it has been a pleasure to work along side in the leadership of Fire House! Thank you, I am excited to see how you tackle your next challenges.
Year 11	S Harrison	What a fantastic student S is: polite, courteous and extremely resilient! I am so proud of this young man and what he has achieved during his time at Crawshaw, always the first to volunteer to help and gets involved in a wide range of extra curricular opportunities. Good luck with your future studies and thank you for being an excellent Fire House member.

HOUSE OF WATER

Year 7	E Shepherd	E has made an excellent start to Year 7 and regularly displays the Crawshaw Character and as such has earned a large number of postcards this year. What impresses me most with her is how well she contributes and supports others to bring the best out of them. She shows great leadership, confidence and communication skills.
Year 8	M Paige-Burrows	M is a very impressive student. Her work ethic and willingness to get involved mean she is a strong role-model for others. Her contributions to House Council, charity days and the recent elections had made each more successful thanks to her involvement.
Year 9	A McGawley	A has shown great personal growth this year and has made important contributions to House Council meetings and the House's charity days. As part of such, A showed the confidence, communication and leadership to independently lead a group of students to make the charity day and fundraising run smoothly.
Year 10	K Strain	K has shown great Crawshaw character this year and as such has earned a large number of postcards. She is considerate, reliable and a good role-model for others.

Year 11	F Twiddy	F has been a valuable member of Water House and the wider school community. Her contributions to the house charity days have been considerable and peer-mentoring work for younger students has been really appreciated. Faith is someone who is caring, empathetic and regularly demonstrates excellent Crawshaw character and as such has been an asset to our house.
YEAR MANAGER'S AWARD
Year 7	A-G Howson	A-G has had quite a stressful start to Year 7 but dealt with this really well. She is really supportive of her peers and will engage and support any student she sees that maybe struggling or upset. She is a polite and happy girl and an excellent role model to others within the year group. Keep up the great work.
Year 8	A-M Pinto	The student receiving the Year 8 Year Manager award has excelled in all areas required to be an outstanding student. A-M has maintained a 100% attendance record, has not received a single negative since the start of Year 8 and this hard work has resulted in her meeting or exceeding all her target grades across all subjects. A-M is setting strong foundations for her future success and we look forward to seeing all her achievements moving forward.
Year 9	L Downing	L is a role-model to other students in year 9: he consistently works hard and maintains an above average Engagement in Learning score. This hard work reflects in Leo's subjects with him meeting or exceeding his targets. Well done, Leo, you deserve the recognition of this award for all your efforts in year 9.
Year 10	L Rugg	L fought to be in her Music subject option where she now excels, and is a very conscientious student who has taken her role as prefect seriously and made valuable contributions. L always puts others before herself, even during difficult times, and with a positive attitude, and has recently been helping a primary school with their art preparations for the Pudsey Carnival. A much-deserved award.
Year 11	W Leung	W has shown incredible resilience and perseverance since joining Crawshaw. His work ethic and personal motivation has been excellent. Arriving in a new school half way through a curriculum without knowing anyone is an incredible challenge to face: W has not only faced this but overcome it with flying colours to become an integral part of his peer group and with the respect of his friends and the staff. Well done, W. We are all very proud of you.
Year 12	E Kite	E made a seamless transition from Y11 into Post-16 and has very quickly developed the independent learning skills required to succeed at A-Level. She has an excellent work ethic and is well organised, which is continually evident in the high standard of work that she produces. E is always actively engaged in learning and keen to explore new opportunities for herself to develop her skillset. Congratulations, E, on a very successful Y12.

KS3 PRINCIPAL'S AWARD

Year 9	N Shepherd	N has been an outstanding student since the moment she walked through the doors in Y7. She is always happy and pleasant and is an absolute pleasure to have in the school. Her attendance and engagement in learning are exemplary. She is also fantastic at karate!

KS4 PRINCIPAL'S AWARD

Year 11	J Sterlachinni	We are so proud of J this year, whether that be in how he has approached his GCSEs with a mature and sensible attitude or getting involved in the performance of Romeo &amp; Juliet . J has shown incredible commitment in his studies, engaging in every opportunity to underpin his knowledge, whilst still showing his caring/supportive nature by helping and guiding others when he can. J's drive and energy can only lead to further successes and a future full of potential.

KS5 PRINCIPAL'S AWARD

Year 13	C Freeman	This award goes to a student who has continually shown commitment to her studies, despite experiencing some very adverse personal circumstances. She has a can-do attitude and has demonstrated resilience and determination throughout the entirety of her time in 6th form. Her determination to succeed makes her an excellent role-model to others and she leaves us having achieved Double Distinction in Level 3 Health &amp; Social care and predicted to do well in A-Level Sociology. She is moving on to study Counselling &amp; Mental Health at Leeds Beckett University and has a very bright and optimistic future. This year the KS5 Principal's award goes to C. Congratulations, C, on a very successful two years in 6th form.
