

What makes a successful

Geographer

...at Crawshaw Academy?

Location & place

To locate different places in the UK and the wider world, whilst appreciating that all places have characteristics that make them unique.

Scale

To understand that changes in geography can occur on local, national and global scales, but also over time.

Physical & human processes

To understand the range of physical and human systems processes that have shaped the world we live in.

Making links

To understand that everything occurring in the world is connected to something else.

Heart

To demonstrate resilience and compassion in order to celebrate similarities and differences between people and their environment.

Environmental Issues

To understand a range of environmental issues that our planet is facing, whilst also providing sustainable solutions to these problems.

Enquiry & Skills

To utilise a range of geographical skills to investigate patterns and phenomena through enquiry.

Communication

To demonstrate good oracy and written communication skills including research, presenting evidence, analysis and evaluation.

