Revision Guides

- The only revision guide recommended for Media Studies is the WJEC/Eduqas revision guide and accompanying student workbook. However, please be aware that these guides are not always affordable so it is advisable to buy second hand. The guides are not always immediately updated to reflect new set products (e.g Taylor Swift's The Man).

YouTube Resources

- Mrs Fisher's Media Studies videos are a good, accessible resource covering set products and Media theory/contexts.
- Please ensure you only watch the GCSE videos and not anything to do with A-Level!

MEDIA STUDIES – REVISION RESOURCES

Eduqas Website

- Most of the resources on the Eduqas website are designed for teachers. However, the website does include past papers (under Sample Assessment Materials) and the set product booklets contain useful information for students.

Knowledge Organisers

- There is a knowledge organiser for every topic/set product. These have been uploaded to the whole-year Media Studies Teams Page under Files – Knowledge Organisers.
- If you would like a Knowledge Organiser to be printed off, please ask your class teacher.
